

Prayers of the People – Oct. 30th 2022 - 21st Sunday After Pentecost

We pray to our Real God in the Name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Father God, loving Saviour, you came to earth to teach us how to live. You washed the feet of Your Disciples to show us in simple terms how we are to treat each other. You humbled Yourself to teach us not to think of ourselves as better than others. Lord, we are sinners and can forget these truths. We thank you for the scripture that reminds us of Your actions that we need to follow. We pray that you forgive our shortcomings and guide us into your truth to let our actions toward others, be our sermon through the power and grace of your Holy Spirit. AMEN

our congregations and communities

Father, uphold and protect your priests and ministers and all whom you have called to leadership. As they lead the faithful in the truth of your word, bless them and give them hearts to love and serve you.

At St. Aidan's we pray for our children, youth and families ministry. We lift up Richard, our ministry leader, our Sunday School teachers and youth group leaders. We pray for them and for those whom they are charged with supporting by word and action. Lord God, bless and anoint them for this work and bless our children and youth and keep them focused on You as they navigate a world with so many distractions.

Real Lives we pray for the world. We stand against the forces of evil that cause chaos and oppose a peaceful world order. We pray for the safety of those fighting for human rights in many areas – Iran, China, Saudi Arabia, Myanmar. Father we pray for all those who are being persecuted for their growing faith in You. Keep them safe and strong by Your Grace.

- Pray that you will help provide the right place for the whole family to live moving forward.
