

REAL GOD. We remember before you Lord God, all those whom we loved and who loved you, and who are no longer with us. To us, they were fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters, sons and daughters and friends. To you they were and are your beloved children. And that is how we remember them now, today. There is no greater title than "child of God". We give you all glory, praise and thanksgiving that you have secured a place for them in your Kingdom.

Lord Jesus Christ, uphold and protect your priests and ministers and all whom you have called to Christian leadership. As they lead the faithful in the truth of your word, bless them and give them hearts to love and serve you alone.

At St. Aidan's – Father, We pray for those in leadership who are busy planning for a smooth transition process in the search for our new pastor. We pray too for that person whom you are preparing to serve you in this place of worship. We pray for Pastor Dave and Elaine as they prepare for their new life. Make their path clear of any barriers; restore Dave to full health, give them peace and grace in their decisions.

REAL LIVES – Lord God, father of all mercy, we continue to pray for peace in our world. We hold up to you the people of Israel, Gaza, Ukraine for special mercy and care. Father, you speak and it happens; speak into the hearts of combatants and call for a ceasefire, an end to hostilities. Protect all of the children, the hospitals and care givers. We stand against the forces of evil that have invaded the souls of some human beings who have performed unspeakable atrocities against others. Speak into the hearts of those who would foster hatred against races of people who are different. You Lord are our only hope in these times of high anxiety; you are our strong tower and our refuge.

MISSIONS

Father we pray for those going up to Leaf Rapids this weekend. Let your love abound in the words and actions your people. We pray for meaningful relationships to be continued and added to. We pray for the ministry that will take place.

Please provide travelling mercies and protections for the journey and most of all for joy in the Lord.

We pray for those in hospital, PCHs and home-bound

We remember Barbara, Bill, Carol, David and Kathy, Elizabeth, Harold, Joy, Kathy, Madeline, Margaret, Pam and Neville, Pearl, Sue and Laird others you may have on your hearts at this time.

We lift up to you all those on our prayer chain and those caring for them.

You have the power to heal our bodies, minds and spirits, Father, and we call on you to do so, in your perfect will and your perfect time.

We remember and give thanks for all recently departed in Christ and those whose anniversaries of death occur at this time. Lord, grant all who have lost loved ones, your comfort and your peace as they celebrate lives lived by faith in you.

We offer these prayers, In the Name of the Father and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, with confidence, trusting that you hear our requests and grant them in your wisdom and mercy, knowing what is best for us.

Lord in your mercy.
