

Real God:

Dear Father, we praise and magnify your Holy Name. You sent your son to be an atonement for our sins. Your sacrifice for us is too painful to comprehend, and while we know that we, frail and human, doubting and questioning, will always fall short of the glory of God, yet we bless you and thank you for grace and mercy. By your Holy Spirit continue to teach us your ways and inspire our hearts to know and love you more each day. Yours is the Kingdom, the Power and the Glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Father, uphold and protect your priests and ministers and all whom you have called to service. As they lead the faithful in the truth of your word, bless them and give them hearts to love and serve you.

In St. Aidan's we lift up to you, Lord, those who serve and protect. We remember especially those who serve as police officers, corrections officers, by-law personnel, prison personnel and all under their care and protection. You are Lord of all and at this time of tribulation and mistrust, send your Holy Spirit to bring about peace and reconciliation into our communities and into the lives of those who love you and, in your mercy, breathe your truth into those who have not seen you and do not know you yet.

Real Lives

We pray for all those whose lives have been upended by wars and turmoil. We especially remember the people of Myanmar, who are seeking a just and fair and free society and who are putting themselves in danger for their people. May they find their hope in you, Lord.

We hold up to you those whose lives are affected by seasonal conditions of weather. We know Lord, that you desire abundant harvests for all and we pray that sufficient rain will bring joy and peace to our farmers. As a community of believers grant us that we, having much, will share, with thanksgiving, our bounty with others in the world who have not.

You, who brought the world into being have such power that we know all things are possible in You.

Missions:

We lift up to you the preparations for our upcoming Mission Week. As Chris, staff and volunteers prepare to greet the community and share the message of you with our neighbours, prepare all of our hearts and minds to demonstrate the gift of hospitality. Help us to be good neighbours ourselves to all whom we meet and give us holy boldness to share your story with confidence. You are worthy, Lord.

We pray for those who are ill and in need

We pray especially for Merle West and Roshawn Scribe.

We pray for those known to your alone, Lord. May they be comforted by your presence in their lives. We pray for all those on our prayer list. Provide relief from isolation for those fearful of contact during Covid-19.

You have the power to heal our bodies, minds and spirits, Father, and we call on you to do so, in your perfect will.

We pray for those in hospital, PCHs and home-bound

We remember before you Kathy and David Baird, Luella Hamel, Dorothy and Harold Bell, Kathy Edwards, Joy and John Wood, Betsy Boulter, Margaret and John Labdon, Barbara Slater, David Hatch, Enid Whalley, Herb and Carol Schon, Elizabeth Kemp, Bill Bundy.

Please take a moment to remember those whom you have on your heart today.

We remember and give thanks for all recently departed in Christ and those whose anniversaries of death occur at this time.

We give our prayers and supplications to you, Lord, standing on your promise that when two or three are gathered in Your Name, you will hear their requests. In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, amen.
