January 22, 2023 Third Sunday after Epiphany

Real God Holy Lord, we praise You for Your relentless care for us in all situations. We thank You that You are drawing people to Yourself in ways we can't imagine. Keep us faithful in prayer and devotion to you, with love for one another, that You may be glorified.

St Aidan's: we thank You for our newly ordained Deacon, Chris Barnes. We pray for him as he works among us with such passion and love for You. Bless and prosper this work within and outside our congregation. Give him the stamina and health he needs in all he does to honour and glorify You.

Missions: We pray for all the youth currently residing at the Manitoba Youth Centre. May your peace rule in their hearts despite their circumstances. Comfort them with your mercy and love, and fill all of the empty places of their hearts and minds with your goodness. We ask that you shine brightly through your servants in the facility and that you will shine your light into all the darkness.

Real Lives Thank You for the teaching this year on the Trinity. Bless each speaker and give us ears to hear as we contemplate the mystery of Three in One.

We lift up to you the One Body prayer evening next Sunday for Winnipeg. Use us, Lord, where You will. Bring many to You by Your healing love and infinite care.

For those who are ill or in need, and those in hospital, homebound or in personal care homes, for Your comforting Presence with them: Kathy, Elizabeth, Barbara, Pam and Neville, Carol, Kathy and David, Bill, Joy, Margaret, Pam, Urmila, and for those whose anniversaries of loved ones occur at this time.

Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayer.
