St. Aidan's

Thank you for our many Small Groups meeting on Zoom. We pray that the groups will find unique ways to celebrate the Lord's coming this advent season.

We pray that the Cords that have and will be formed, allow us to share and care for each other in a more personal and intimate manner. We seek to include every person on the parish list and for You Lord to make known to us others who may need a special connection at this time.

Thank you Lord for Social Media and for teaching us safe and creative ways to minister to each other and the world.

REAL LIVES

During Covid we pray for all essential workers that God will protect their health as they put themselves at risk in service to others. For those most susceptible to the virus and those in Personal Care Homes, we ask that God will protect them from illness and surround them with the peace of knowing that they are loved and cared for beyond measure.

Missions - St Aidan's Christian School

- Pray for the safety of all teachers and students during this time.
- Pray the gospel will be witnessed through their love for one another.
- Pray the Holy Spirit will guide all decisions moving forward.
