

REAL GOD. O God, Spirit of truth, help us to be truthful with one another. O God, spirit of gentleness, help us to be gentle with one another. O God who knows what is in our hearts, more clearly than we do ourselves, help us to hear one another. O God, lead us in the way of your truth and love.

Lord Jesus Christ, you equip your ministers with gifts to be used for the growing and uplifting of your church here on earth. We earnestly pray that you bless and anoint those whom you have called with a sense of renewal and revival. Let each of them stand firm in the truth and wisdom of your gospel. Give them a spirit of service and holy boldness as they lift high the cross of Christ. And most of all given them hearts to love and serve you alone.

At St. Aidan's – We give you thanks for the blessing you have given us through your faithful provision for our needs. Through your grace and by the power of the Holy Spirit, you have provided new youth leaders, supported and encouraged through prayer and practical help. You have called your faithful to service as prayers on prayer teams and prayer chains. You bless us with Sunday school teachers, eager to share your Gospel story and grow children in knowledge and love of Jesus. You grace us with fellowship hosts who fill our tables to overflowing and spark lively conversations after our worship services. And Father, we put our Trust and Hope in you to provide for our leadership needs at St. Aidan's. We wait upon your decision for our new rector, because you Lord, are in control.

REAL LIVES – Father, the world is yours, you created us and everything in it. Let us never lose sight of that. We pray for those suffering from the devastation brought by tropical storm Helene. We pray your comfort upon those who have lost their most precious gift; loved ones. We ask you to encourage all who can to support the affected in any way they can and we thank you for the relief offered by governments and individuals, showing your love to one another. We pray against the forces of evil at work in the Middle East and pray that a solution to the conflict is found and no further lives are lost. We call on your mighty power in this situation, Lord.

Missions

Praying for those who are currently involved with Mission work around the world:

- Jamie and Gwen and their ministry with Operation Mobilization in Austria - Joy Ngozi and the evangelistic ministry she is involved with in Nigeria
- Sharyn Thomson and her work with Wycliffe Bible translation

We pray for those in hospital, PCHs and home-bound, and for those we are blessed to have with us and who, nonetheless, are in need of our prayers.

We remember Barbara, Bill, Carol, David, EunYoung, Elizabeth, Harold, Joy, Margaret, Pam, Pearl, Sue, Ruth, Deborah and Brent, Laird, Terry, Tracy and Pastor Indy.

We lift up to you all those on our prayer chain and those caring for them.

You are the great physician, the healer. The Name of Jesus is greater by far than any cancer any anxiety, any illness or disease. Heal those for whom we pray Father.

We remember and give thanks for all recently departed in Christ and those whose anniversaries of death occur at this time.

We offer these prayers, with confidence, trusting that you hear our requests and grant them in your wisdom and mercy, knowing what is best for us.

Lord in your mercy.
