

REAL Growth: The Brother King - Week 5.

Glorified; more than conquerors

These notes are to be used in conjunction with the sermon series during the service or with the recording. They are intended to assist also with further individual or group study

Readings

Romans 8: 28-30, 35-39 and John 17: 20-26

The Brother King

Where is your heart and mind focused in life; what is your priority and what gives you peace? How does this connect with Colossians 3: 1-3?

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Glorification; Roms. 8: 30 (18-21), define glorification?

.....

.....

.....

Why does it mean freedom from sin and new bodies (1 Cor. 15: 35-58)? Does it involve the whole of creation (Roms. 8: 19, 21-23, Col. 1: 19-20)? Will it go on in eternity and what will eternity be like (Rev. 21)?

.....

.....

.....

.....

From Here to Eternity; John 17: 20-26;

Sin and Suffering Roms. 3: 23, 8: 18. How can the truths we have focused on make a difference to life today?

.....

.....

Sanctification; John 17: 20, 22, 25-26. What is this and how does it help us set our hearts and minds on 'things above'?

.....
.....
.....
.....

God's Glory & love, Unity and Mission; John 17: 20-21, 23. These verses show us the right focus and priorities in life. Describe what they are and how they help to conform us to the likeness of Jesus and our final glorification?

.....
.....
.....
.....

Glorification; John 17: 23-24. Describe how these verses show glorification as God's end goal for us and how we can see the five affirmations within them?

.....
.....
.....

More than Conquerors; Roms. 8: 35-39. Meditate upon and discuss how the three foundations we have looked at and the five affirmations mean that we cannot be separated from God's love.
